Choose Life Fund Expenditure Form

(Instructions)

Note: According to the Compliance agreement for this award, 60% of the total award is assigned to Material Need Costs for pregnant women who are planning to place their children for adoption or for infants awaiting placement with adoptive parents (this can include, clothing, housing, medical care, food, utilities, and transportation); 40% of the award is assigned to Direct Costs to expenditures in counseling, training, and advertising. Section 3701.65 of the Ohio Revised Code and rule 3701.74-01 of the Ohio Administrative Code prohibit the use of these funds for the purpose of administration, legal, or capital expenditure.

1. Complete the following information in the following order: Agency Name, Tax ID Number, Contact Name, and Contact Phone Number.
2. In the "Award Amount" row, enter the award amount in cell "B9." This is the SFY 20 award for the designated agency from the Choose Life Fund.
3. In the "Material Needs of Pregnant Women..." row, enter the total expenditures for the three months included in each quarter for the following categories: Clothing, Housing, Medical Care, Food, Utilities, and Transportation.
4. In the "Direct Costs..." row, enter the total expenditures for the three months included in each quarter for the following categories: Counseling, Training, and Advertising.
5. Column C represents "Total Expenditure" for the reporting period quarters of SFY21 (June 1, 2020, through May 31, 2021). Column C contains formulas that will total the four reporting quarters for each category.
6. Unused funds that exceed 10% of the money received during the previous years must be returned to the Department of Health by June 1, 2021. If the amount is less than 10% of the total award, the amount must be carried forward until depleted.
