ADDITIONAL HCV RESOURCES

FOR PATIENTS

HCV Advocate

www.hcvadvocate.org

HCV Advocate is a part of the Hepatitis C Support Project, a non-profit organization founded by Hep C-positive individuals to provide education and support for others with Hep C.

Help 4 Hep

www.help4hep.org

Help-4-Hep is a non-profit toll-free helpline that connects people who have concerns about Hep C with sympathetic, knowledgeable counselors—typically people whose own lives have been affected by this disease.

Department of Veterans Affairs

www.va.gov

The VA leads the country in hepatitis screening, testing, treatment, research, and prevention. The VA can provide information for healthcare providers, veterans, and the public.

Rx Assist

www.rxassist.org

Pharmaceutical companies often have programs to provide free or low-cost medications to people who qualify for this assistance. RxAssist has a comprehensive directory of Patient Assistance Programs, among other resources.

Caring Bridge

www.caringbridge.org

Partnering with the American Liver Foundation, Caring Bridge offers free, personal websites to people experiencing a significant health challenge. These private sites are intended to provide a valuable way to reach out to family and friends, and make each health journey easier.

Partnerships for Prescription Assistance

www.pparx.org

PPA helps qualifying patients—who don't have prescription drug coverage—get the medicines they need for free or at low cost.

FOR PROVIDERS

Guide to Hepatitis C Testing by AAHIVM and ACP

www.aahivm.org/hcv-testing-screening

The American Academy of HIV Medicine and the American College of Physicians developed a "Guide to Hepatitis C Testing" for clinical providers that presents information on recommended testing populations, screening processes, and billing for diagnostic and confirmatory screening and genotype testing. It also provides guidance and examples on patient interactions and provision of information on hepatitis C.

CDC Hepatitis C FAQs for Health Professionals

www.cdc.gov/hepatitis/hcv/hcvfaq.htm

The Centers for Disease Control and Prevention website for frequently asked HCV questions for health professionals includes information on HCV statistics, transmission and symptoms, testing and diagnosis, management and treatment, counseling of patients, occupational exposures, and special considerations during pregnancy.

AASLD HCV Guidance: Recommendations for Testing, Managing, and Treating Hepatitis C

www.hcvguidelines.org

Guidance for hepatitis C treatment in adults is changing constantly with the advent of new therapies and other developments. This online guide from the American Association for the Study of Liver Diseases is regularly updated with the latest recommendations.
